DESIGN

The G3 ARCTIC COMBAT PANT™ combines time-tested combat functionality with specialized alpine adaptations. Building on the robust G3 framework, it features a ten-pocket configuration, adjustable waist, and articulating stretch panels for enhanced mobility. The ARCTIC version introduces the MULTICAM® ALPINE camouflage pattern for superior snow concealment and utilizes water-resistant Apocalypse Plus fabric with a PU-coated lower leg to withstand harsh conditions. Additionally, the lower inseam incorporates a zipper for seamless compatibility with alpine boots. These pants are also designed to integrate with the patented removable AIRFLEX™ COMBAT KNEE PADS (available separately). Made in the US from US materials.
